

VALBIOTIS invited to participate in annual J.P. Morgan Healthcare conference

- The 36th J.P. Morgan Healthcare conference is held in San Francisco from 8 to 11 January
- In addition, VALBIOTIS meets with international investors during the Biotech Showcase

La Rochelle, 8 January 2018 (5:35 pm CET) - VALBIOTIS (FR0013254851 - ALVAL / PEA/SME eligible), a company that specializes in developing innovative nutrition solutions designed to prevent cardiometabolic diseases and provide nutritional support for patients, is invited to participate in the prestigious J.P. Morgan Healthcare conference taking place in San Francisco, California, from 8 to 11 January 2018.

The annual J.P. Morgan Healthcare conference is a major event for the health industry, that gathers worldwide Industrial players, by invitation only, to meet with more than 8000 specialized international investors. Founded in 1982, this annual meeting is now the largest international symposium dedicated to health industry investment. It offers a much sought-after opportunity for companies to establish privileged contacts with expert investors. Created in 2014, VALBIOTIS is among the few French health industry companies selected for this key event.

In addition, VALBIOTIS is also participating in the Biotech Showcase, a satellite event focusing on biotechnology, which brings together more than 900 international industry investors in San Francisco from 8 to 10 January 2018.

These two meetings, taking place in the heart of the San Francisco Bay area, will help increase the Company's visibility, in addition to promoting its objective, its development strategy and the progress of its pipeline to the leading actors in the biotechnology sector. These two events introduce an ambitious business agenda for 2018, during which VALBIOTIS will strengthen its position in France and expand its presence in key countries for its product portfolio, in Europe, Canada and the United States.
